What is ICB

The ICB is an examining body and a Quality Assurance Partner (QAP) of the Quality Council for Trades & Occupations (QCTO). The Institute of Certified Bookkeepers (ICB) graduates are recognised worldwide by the International Association of Bookkeepers, the Southern African Institute of Business Accountants (SAIBA), the South African Institute of Tax Practitioners (SAIT), the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) and the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA).

There are 3 Programmes to choose from:

- Financial Accounting

- Office Administration
(Entrance requirement: Grade 12, 16 years or older, and the understanding of English)
- Business Management
(Entrance requirement: Grade 11, 16 years or older, and the understanding of English)

Duration

These are 3-year programmes, and they are divided on 3 levels. Each level is a qualification on its own and is internationally recognized.

If you start from the Foundation Level, the course usually takes around 3 years. You are however able to complete your qualification in a shorter duration.

The intention behind the programme is for students to do all three levels and end off with a Diploma, but students would be able to end off their studies having only completed the first level, and their qualification will still bear weight.
